UWASNET Newsflash

Monday March 3, 2025

Uganda Kicks Off 8th Annual Water and Environment Week with 317km Walk to Rally National Support.

317km Walk for Water & Environment from Buliisa to Kampala to Raise Awareness and Mobilize Action for Sustainable Water and Environmental Solutions.

Click Here to Read More:

UWASNET Newsflash

Monday March 3, 2025

Civil Society Organizations Key to Building Climate-Resilient Water and Sanitation Services in Africa

At AfWASA Conference, Experts Highlight Innovations, Community Engagement, and Policy Advocacy as Critical Pathways to Secure Water and Sanitation for All Amid Climate Challenges

Click Here to Read More:

water for people UGANDA

UWASNET Newsflash

Monday March 3, 2025

Climate change is severely impacting water and sanitation systems, but there are ways to address this challenge! The article emphasizes the critical importance of investing in climate-resilient WASH infrastructure to safeguard communities.

Click Here to Read More:

WaterAid

UWASNET Newsflash

Monday March 3, 2025

Water Compass Engages in AfWASA Congress to Advance Sustainable Water Solutions.

Emphasizing innovation, strategic partnerships, and climate resilience, Water Compass reinforces its commitment to sustainable and dignified water services across Africa.

Click Here to Read More:

UWASNET
Newsflash

Monday
March 3,
2025

Ensuring Dignity in Education: Plan International Uganda Advocates for Menstrual Health Awareness.

New Term Initiative Aims to Keep Girls in School by Promoting Menstrual Health Education and Breaking Stigma Among Boys and Girls Alike

Click Here to Read More:

PLAN INTERNATIONAL
Until we are all equal

UWASNET Newsflash

Monday March 3, 2025

African Water Leaders Unite to Tackle Funding, Innovation, and Sustainability at AfWASA Congress.

Drink Local Drink Tap joins key stakeholders in advancing indigenous solutions, innovative financing, and data-driven strategies for a water-secure Africa.

Click Here to Read More:

DRINK LOCAL DRINK TAP™

UWASNET Newsflash

Monday March 3, 2025

Water Security at a Crossroads: Africa Must Stay in the Global Conversation.

At AfWASA 2025, leaders warn that shrinking WASH budgets and climate shocks threaten progress calling for urgent action, investment, and innovation to secure Africa's water future.

Click Here to Read More:

Simavi
Powerful women, healthy societies.

UWASNET
Newsflash

Monday
March 3,
2025

Empowering Girls in Karamoja: New Project to Boost Gender Equality in Schools.

Initiative to Enhance School Infrastructure, Train Educators, and Educate Over 7,800 Students on Reproductive Health and Menstrual Management

Click Here to Read More:

UWASNET
Newsflash

Monday
March 3,
2025

Medical Camp in Otuke District Uncovers Urgent Health and Social Challenges Among Children.

Link to Progress and MCC Netherlands identify critical healthcare gaps, calling for malaria prevention, deworming, and school support initiatives to combat poverty and disease.

Click Here to Read More:

LTP link to progress

UWASNET Newsflash

Monday March 3, 2025

Rwanda Hosts Regional Workshop to Strengthen Climate-Resilient WASH Across Africa.

Water For People and IRCWASH bring together experts to advance systems leadership, equity, and inclusion in climate-resilient water, sanitation, and hygiene services.

Click Here to Read More:

water for people UGANDA

UWASNET
Newsflash

Monday
March 3,
2025

Irimya Project in Ibanda District Transforms Lives Through Home Improvement Campaigns.

Community Embraces Better Hygiene, Sanitation, and Sustainable Living with Overwhelming Joy and Participation!

Click Here to Read More: